Trading in Small Volume, With Irregular Price Changes-Brooklyn Rapid Transit Active-Sugar Refining Follows in Briskness, But the Operations Are Very Limited.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.-The stock market opened with the dealings in very light ne, and with small and irregular price changes appearing. Irregular changes were shown in the London stock market today, but while the South African situation appeared to be more warlike than at any time yet, consols were unaffected, and no change was made in the discount rate of the Bank of England, The last circumstance was considered noteworthy, particularly as an export movement of gold from England to this ountry has begun. Foreign houses appeared to have few orders in this market at the opening of business.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit was again the conspicuous feature in respect of activity. The stock opened off rather sharply, but it later on recovered its loss Manhattan and Metropilitan Street Railway were firm. The trading in grangers was in unusually small volume, as it was the Pacifics and other standard issues. In the Industrial quarter the only noteworthy activity was in Sugar Refining, but even in that instance the price movements were limited. The duliness of the market was reasonably enough attributable to the approaching on of business and further to the natural anxiety in regard to the showing to be made by the banks in their state-

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—A mob of several hundred negroes tried to lynch James Washington for betraying Edward Curtis, an escaped convict from the Tenness prison camps, to the police. Nearly every window in the house was smashed by stones and bricks, and the door was partly battered down. Two officers on the beat were fighting off the mob from the front door with drawn revolvers when re-en-forcements arived.

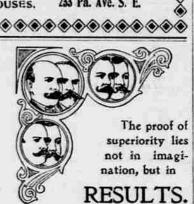

Washington is a colored man, and has had some experience as a detective. He

The colored people are greatly excited over the capture. Wash-ington was taken to the police station, guarded by twenty-five officers, and locked in a cell for protection.

Admiral Dewey Weights 159 Pounds.

Admiral Dewey has read the sensational stories in the newspapers of his ill-health, and their trying to make him out a sick man. One day the Admiral went down to the engine room platform and stepped on the scales turned at 159 pounds, but the Admiral didn't seem to think it was right. So he called another orderly who verified the weight, which seemed to please the great naval hero very much. "That's more than I ever weighted before." eaid the Admiral, and it is now supposed that he chuckies whenever he sees the reports of his sickness. Admiral Dewey's weight is 159 pounds, and your weight will be increased if you drink Heurich's beer. Phone six-thirty-four, Arlington Botting Co., for a case of Maersen or Senate, and drink a bottle with your meals and before retiring and you will readily find out the beneficial qualities of these high-grade beverages.
